NARRATIVE:

Bell, a documented member of the East Coast Crips gang, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 19. He has been convicted of kidnapping, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, multiple robberies, possess/purchase cocaine base for sale, assault, evading police, hit and run: property damage, parole violations, and fugitive from justice. Bell served multiple state prison terms, the longest an eleven (11) year prison term for evading police. Bell was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 06th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Bell absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Bell qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading police meets the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
